

CARES Act

COVID-19 Update

Updated as of March 31, 2021

CARES Act

Angelina College will soon be able to provide emergency financial grants to students to help cover expenses related to disruptions due to the coronavirus such as food, housing, course materials, technology, health care and child care through the Coronavirus Aid, Relief and Economic Security (CARES Act).

CARES Act Funding Institution Disclosure

The Department of Education requires that each institution participating in the Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund (HEERF) must post the information listed below on the institution's primary website.

The following information must appear in a format and location that is easily accessible to the public 30 days after the date when the institution received its allocation under 18004(a)(1) and updated every 45 days thereafter.

Update Reporting Cycle

Grantees posting a 45-day report on or after August 31, 2020 should instead post a report every calendar quarter, with the next calendar quarter report due by October 10, 2020 and covering the period from after their last 45-day or 30-day report through the end of the calendar quarter on September 30, 2020. Additional report periods ending December 31, March 31, and June 30.

Angelina College Response:

Angelina College disbursed CARES Act funds to all Title IV Eligible students registered in the Fall 2020 and Spring 2021 semesters. The amount of funds that were distributed was determined by dividing the number of eligible students by the amount of funds received.

The eligible student list was reviewed by the CARES team. Each team member reviewed and discussed the eligible student list, criteria for distribution of funds to students, the requirements of the grant, and determined the amount of funds to distribute to each student. The team included individuals from:

- Office of Financial Aid
- Office of Business Services
- Office of Grants and Sponsored Programs
- Office of Institutional Advancement and Student Affairs

7. Any instructions, directions, or guidance provided by the institution to students concerning the Emergency Financial Aid Grants.

Angelina College Response:

Each eligible student received a campus email outlining the eligibility criteria and their award amount. Additional information regarding CARES Act funds is posted via the college website.
