

General Refund Policy

Angelina College follows the state-mandated refund policy for students who withdraw from all classes or who reduce their credit hour load.

Students who drop, who officially withdraw from Angelina College, or who are officially dismissed from Angelina College, and who are enrolled in semester-length courses shall receive refunds of tuition and mandatory fees as follows:

• Fall and Spring Semesters

Prior to the first class day.....	100%
During the first fifteen class days.....	70%
During class days sixteen through twenty.....	25%
After the twentieth class day	None

• Summer Semesters

Prior to the first class day.....	100%
During the first five class days.....	70%
During the sixth and seventh class days.....	25%
After the seventh day	None

Students who drop courses, officially withdraw from Angelina College, or the College officially dismisses, and who are enrolled in flex courses and/or non-semester length courses with a census date other than the twelfth class day (e.g., fourth class day for the six-week summer semesters) shall receive refunds of tuition and mandatory fees in excess of the minimum tuition as follows:

Prior to the first class day.....	100%
After classes begin.....	See Table B

Students planning to drop a course or withdraw from the College should visit the Office of Financial Aid to determine how dropping or withdrawing from a course will affect their financial aid. A student may drop a course or courses by completing the necessary form in the Office of the Academic Success. According to federal regulations, the College must credit refunds back to the federal programs in this order*:

1. Federal Pell Grant Program
2. Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant (FSEOG) Program
3. Other Title IV Programs
4. Other Federal, State, private, or institutional assistance
5. The student

*Angelina College does not participate in any student loan programs, including the Federal Stafford Loan, the Perkins Loan, or the Federal Plus programs.
